LOWER MILL ESTATE IN THE COTSWOLDS JOINS THE REGISTRY COLLECTION[®] PROGRAM

World's largest luxury exchange program welcomes its first English resort – a glorious nature lover's paradise in the heart of the Gloucestershire countryside

KETTERING, U.K. (February 17, 2011) – Lower Mill[®] today announced the affiliation of its Lower Mill Estate property to The Registry Collection, the world's largest luxury exchange program, and part of the Wyndham Worldwide family of brands (NYSE: WYN).

Lower Mill is beautifully located in an exclusive corner of rural Gloucestershire on a 600-acre private estate that is also a globally-recognised nature reserve. Just 90 minutes from London, the resort is a unique combination of ultra-sophisticated lifestyle and back-to-nature experience, set in a rural location of countryside and lakes teeming with wildlife including butterflies, badgers, beavers, otters, deer, kingfishers, nightingales, egrets and owls.

Visitors can also fish, sail and canoe on the lakes, walk or bicycle a number of trails or enjoy a variety of other on-site amenities including an award-winning spa, Pevonia treatment room, sauna and steam room, 'technogym', one indoor and two outdoor pools, an eco-pool, workout facility, tennis courts, and concierge service and 24-hour security.

The whole-ownership development comprises four-bedroom estate and villa-style properties and includes a 1830s Cotswold barn restored under the supervision of award-winning architect Andy Ramus, who also crafted the interiors of the villa units.

As an added perk, prospective owners will be able to enjoy the benefits of affiliation to The Registry Collection, giving them the opportunity to stay at a choice of more than 175 luxury properties around the world for eight weeks each year.

“It was an easy decision to work with The Registry Collection,” said Jeremy Paxton, owner of Lower Mill Estate. “The Registry Collection will give our owners access to the finest vacation resorts around the world, all offering standards of luxury comparable to our own. We’re delighted to be able to offer this service to our owners.”

Nick Turner, vice president Europe, The Registry Collection, said: “We are very pleased to welcome Lower Mill into The Registry Collection network. It is a majestic resort in a wonderful location and will be a tremendous addition to our collection of the very best vacation destinations.

“The resort’s beautiful nature reserve, lakes and on-site amenities are sure to be a big hit with our members, as are the luxury accommodation and fabulous location in the heart of the ever-popular Cotswolds.”

About Lower Mill Estate

Lower Mill ® is a family-run business headed by entrepreneur Jeremy Paxton, a lover of nature, a man committed to environmental causes, and a supporter of visual arts. Jeremy set out with a vision 16 years ago to harmonise architecture, ecology and people to create the first sustainable community of its kind in the world. He invited some of the world’s top architects to create a series of modernist homes on the estate and now there are 230 wonderful examples built, making this the largest collection of modernist architecture anywhere in the UK.
